Shawn Struggle: The Blak Supahero

My Purpose or should I say my mission, is to serve as the Blak Supahero for My People. The people of the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia (DMV), and the members of our ailing hip-hop nation. I think, rather, I know that it's That Time to recognize the everyday man who grinds through the struggle as the hero that he is. I represent and speak for that man, I am that man, and I'm ready to carry the weight of the world on my shoulders like Atlas. I'm fully prepared.

It's also time to restore hope, relevance, skill and substance to our precious art form that seems to have lost its way. It's time to let the people of our hip hop nation know. It's time to let you know that we will no longer be regarded as second class lyricists and producers in the DMV--our time has come, our time is now. You will feel our presence, for we will not be denied.

Now there was a time when I didn't have this clarity and focus. Once upon a time I was Little Shawn. I went from the house to the couch to out in the vacants--Caught Up in this sometimes vicious cycle we call life, what we call reality. Yes, I once lived by a different standard. I was a bad MF on theses D.C. streets who truthfully was taking no shorts and Giving Nuthin' Up. Amazingly, I defied the odds, and the laws of physics and averages. Although I can't even believe it, I'm Alive.

But you see, I Woke Up, and though I subscribe to the theory that there is No Rebirth, we can achieve a figurative or symbolic self renewal, a metamorphosis of sorts. Trust me, I know. I did that.

That said I am still, to this day not without flaws--past or present, real or imagined. And you know what, I'm still not perfect. But you see, I am rejuvenated, I am committed to rebuilding hip-hop and I am committed to rebuilding the everyday man's battered Psyche. Most of all, I am For Real!

All I ask of you, the customer, the listener, the consumer, the DMV massive, is to be open minded and be prepared to absorb all of this goodness provided courtesy of me, and the Infinite Soul Music, live from the Crank House.

Some may not know me, some may not relate to my journey and some may even ask who is this guy?

Well, I'm Shawn Struggle and I approve this message dammit!
